CIVIL ACTION NO.

4183

3-06CV1693-P

PLAINTIFF'S ORIGINAL COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Tyler Technologies, Inc. ("Tyler") files this Original Complaint against Defendant, Virtual Impact Productions, Inc. ("VIP"), and for its causes of action would show the Court the matters set forth below.

The Parties

1. Tyler is a corporation formed under the laws of the State of Delaware, with its principal place of business located at 5949 Sherry Lane, Suite 1400, Dallas, Texas 75225.

2. VIP is a Florida corporation having a principal place of business at 607 St. Andrews Drive, Sarasota, Florida 34243.

Jurisdiction and Venue

3. This case is an action for declaratory judgment pursuant to Title 28, United States Code, § § 2201-2202 and Title 35, United States Code, § 101 et seq., as to non-infringement of alleged patent rights and an action for declaratory judgment for related state law causes of action, some of which necessarily depend on resolution of a substantial question of federal patent law. In addition, the Court has jurisdiction over this case pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) because the matter in controversy exceeds $75,000.00, exclusive of interests and costs, and is between citizens of different States. In sum, the Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § § 1331, 1332, 1338, 2201, and, to the extent necessary, 1367.

4. Venue is proper within this judicial district and division under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred in Dallas County.

Background Facts

5. Tyler designs, develops and markets software products for use by local governments.

6. Tyler received a letter from VIP dated September 7, 2006. A true and correct copy of the September 7, 2006 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit “A” and is incorporated herein by reference for all purposes.

7. In the letter, VIP accuses Tyler of infringing its patent for a “virtual school environment” by “aggressively marketing the proprietary technology Virtual.” Exhibit A at 1. VIP states that it is the owner of U.S. Patent No. 6,505,031 (the “’031 Patent”). Id.

8. VIP further asserts that “Tyler has severely damaged the patent of Virtual” through Tyler’s application of the virtual school environment “as is protected in United States Patent 6,505,031.” Exhibit A at 2 (emphasis in original). VIP alleges that it “is damaged because it cannot exclusively market its patent.” Id. VIP also states that it will suffer “negative tax consequences in the loss of exclusivity of the patent to Virtual.” Id.

Request For Declaratory Judgment

9. By virtue of VIP’s actions, including threats of litigation, accusations of infringement, and allegations of damages suffered, a reasonable apprehension exists on Tyler’s behalf that Tyler will be wrongfully sued by VIP for infringement of the ‘031 Patent. An actual controversy therefore exists between the parties with respect to whether Tyler's actions, if any, infringe any valid claim of the '031 Patent.

10. Tyler requests a declaration that its actions do not infringe the '031 Patent.

11. By virtue of VIP's actions, including threats of litigation, accusations of unspecified contract and/or tort violations, and allegations of damages suffered, a reasonable apprehension exists on Tyler's behalf that Tyler will be wrongfully sued by VIP. An actual controversy therefore exists between the parties.

12. Tyler requests a declaration that it has not damaged VIP by any state law cause of action.

Prayer

WHEREFORE, Tyler prays:

- (a) that the Court declare that Tyler's actions do not infringe the '031 Patent;
- (b) that the Court declare that Tyler's actions do not support any state law causes of action by VIP based in tort and/or contract;
- (c) that Tyler be awarded its costs of court;
- (d) that Tyler be awarded its attorneys' fees; and
- (e) that Tyler be awarded its such other and further relief as this Court shall deem just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Dear Mr. Marr:

This firm represents the interests of Virtual Impact Productions, Inc., Michelle Robinson and Robert Slider (herein collectively referenced as "Virtual"), in the sale of its United States Patent 6,505,031, a system for providing a "virtual school environment". Of course, this term need not be defined in that Tyler Technologies, Inc., (herein "Tyler") knows precisely the meaning and application of this term.

Virtual was deeply concerned and dismayed to learn from the firm brokering the sale of the referenced exclusive patent, that Virtual Impact Productions, Inc., is not only listed as a partner with Tyler upon the website of Tyler, but that Tyler is aggressively marketing the proprietary technology Virtual. An immediate investigation was launched and has revealed this "partnership" has no basis in law or fact. No one from Virtual has made any such agreement or alliance much less had any contact with your company. By what right, license, title, or interest does Tyler advertise such claim to the stockholders, governmental entities, and other institutions? This representation is false and is the corporate fingerprint of Tyler's long trail of misdeeds which continue to damage the interests of Virtual.

Tyler acquired Mazik USA, a company which attempted but failed to come to any agreement with Virtual regarding the purchase or the use in any way shape or form of the patent of Virtual. Notwithstanding their warranties in the 8-K, Mazik USA could not sell to Tyler that which it did not possess. In short, even the most cursory review of the facts surrounding Tyler's application of the "virtual school environment" clearly establishes that Tyler has severely damaged the patent of Virtual. Tyler has "virtually hijacked" the virtual school environment of Virtual and its interest as is protected in United States Patent 6,505,031. There is no excuse as to why this situation could not have been totally avoided had due diligence been exercised before acquiring Mazik USA. What could be more transparent than the evidentiary fact that your website contains a link to the patent of Virtual? Who is responsible for such a debacle that is daily damaging the interests of Virtual?

Virtual is damaged because it cannot exclusively market its patent and cannot fulfill its legal obligations to the firm brokering the patent. This fails to even take into account the negative tax consequences in the loss of exclusivity of the patent to Virtual. Tyler has at best been negligent in its due diligence which is the direct and proximate cause of the mounting damages to Virtual. This calls for the immediate attention of Tyler if it expects to avoid dire consequences.

Virtual demands that Tyler contact this law firm within three (3) business days of the receipt of this letter and coordinate a meeting to discuss and resolve our mutual concerns. Should you fail to contact this office, Virtual will exercise any legal, administrative, or regulatory option in order to redress this outrage.

I trust our position upon this matter is clear.

Sincerely
